ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT

Academic Advising

unlv.edu/advising

UNLV has 12 academic advising centers on campus, here to support students through their academic journey: Academic Success Center (advises exploring majors & pathways), Business, Education, Engineering, Fine Arts, Health Sciences, Honors, Hospitality, Liberal Arts, Sciences, Urban Affairs, and Pre-Professional Advising. Students are encouraged to schedule at least one academic advising appointment during the fall and spring semesters. Establishing a relationship with an academic advisor ensures that you meet your specific degree requirements and accomplish your personal academic goals.

Academic Success Center

unlv.edu/asc

The Academic Success Center (ASC) is a resource hub that welcomes, guides, and supports students throughout their academic journeys. The ASC can help with exploring and choosing a major, and registering for classes, including a first-year seminar. They offer various services aimed at student success, including tutoring, academic success coaching, and a Math Bridge program to help students gain skills and confidence in college-level math.

University Libraries

library.unlv.edu

The University Libraries are a hub for student discovery, creativity, learning, and scholarship. As the main and largest library at UNLV, Lied Library is the campus's physical and intellectual center, with more than 2,500 study spaces, computer workstations, and group study rooms to support student learning. Four branch libraries provide access to specialized materials and offer research assistance and resources on architecture, medicine, music, and teacher development. Students also have access to the Makerspace and Multimedia Production Studios, multidisciplinary spaces dedicated to emerging technology where students can experiment and create.

Writing Center

writingcenter.unlv.edu

The Writing Center offers students free one-on-one or group consultations working on academic, professional, or personal writing projects at any stage of the writing process – from first ideas to polished drafts. The center offers in-person, virtual, and OWL writing consultations. Additional online resources are also available.

Office of Undergraduate Research

unlv.edu/our

The Office of Undergraduate Research (OUR) seeks to elevate the status of undergraduate research at UNLV. OUR strives to increase direct undergraduate student participation in research and enhance research education and learning experiences. We create rich and diverse research and funding opportunities and engage students with local, regional, national, and global challenges.

SUPPORT SERVICES

The Intersection

unlv.edu/intersection

Available to all students, The Intersection serves as an academic resource center for students seeking information and assistance on a variety of topics that reflect the challenges they encounter in their academic life. It is a multicultural center that focuses on demystifying the college experience for self-identified first-generation students and students of color.

Center for Academic Enrichment & Outreach

caeo.unlv.edu

The Center for Academic Enrichment & Outreach offers federally-funded programs that deliver services designed to motivate and support students from diverse backgrounds to pursue a college degree. They provide eligible students with various support services to help them achieve their educational goals, including tutoring, mentoring, academic and career counseling, and undergraduate research. All services are free to qualified students. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, and space is limited.

Disability Resource Center

unlv.edu/drc

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is the officially designated office supporting UNLV students with disabilities. Students with disabilities, temporary injuries, or who need academic adjustments due to pregnancy are encouraged to contact the DRC about support, accommodations, and services available at UNLV.

Military & Veteran Services Center

unlv.edu/veterans

The Military and Veteran Services Center (MVSC) has veterans and GI Bill-experienced staff who understand the many challenges associated with students working toward their degree while serving on active duty and the challenges associated with transitioning from the military to the civilian world. The MVSC has developed a veteran-friendly campus environment that fosters academic and personal success.

Office of International Students & Scholars

unlv.edu/oiss

The Office of International Students & Scholars helps international students and their families make smooth transitions at UNLV. Help with immigration records and regulations, visa and travel issues, employment applications, and even personal counseling on cultural adjustment issues.

Office of International Programs

unlv.edu/internationalprograms

Students can take classes towards their major or learn a language abroad during a semester, over winter break, summer, or even year-long. While earning credit, students gain a global perspective, meet exciting people, and participate in field trips. They can also pursue internships or volunteer service abroad.

Career Services

unlv.edu/careerservices

Career Services hosts several on-campus job fairs and provides career and professional development services. These services include career coaching, job and internship search assistance, interview preparation, resume/cover letter assistance, and career planning and exploration. Students and alumni also have access to an online job posting platform that allows them to apply for jobs and internships both on and off campus.

SAFETY

University Police Services

unlv.edu/police

University Police Services (UPD) is a full-service law enforcement agency operating patrol and dispatch services 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It includes police, emergency management, and safety services. This page is dedicated to some of the many services that UPD offers to the UNLV community.

RebelSAFE

unlv.edu/police/unlv#alert

RebelSAFE provides real-time chats with police services dispatch, requests for Rebel Rides evening security escorts and shuttles, anonymous crime tip submission, and more. RebelSAFE Alert is the emergency notification system used for incidents that present an imminent threat to life, health, or safety. Alerts provide information and instructions to protect yourself during an emergency. Students are automatically enrolled in this system.

Rebel Rides Security Escorts

unlv.edu/police/units/student-cadets

Student Cadets provide walking and golf cart escort services for students to and from any campus location during the evening hours, based on availability. Requests can be made at 702-895-3668 or through the RebelSAFE App.

Emergency Call Boxes

unlv.edu/police/unlv#phones

RebelSAFE emergency phones are located throughout campus. They are illuminated by a blue light and equipped with a 360-degree surveillance camera. Request help, report a crime or suspicious activities, request a Rebel Rides shuttle, or other emergencies. Emergency calls from these phones will directly connect to University Police Dispatch or broadcast RebelSAFE Alerts via public address speakers.

Female Self-Defense Classes

unlv.edu/police/units/community-engagement

These free self-defense classes provide women with the basic skills to escape an attacker and teach them how to avoid dangerous situations.

CAMPUS TECHNOLOGY, PRINTING & SHIPPING

Information Technology

it.unlv.edu

The Office of Information Technology supports both on-campus and remote learning technologies, including WebCampus, WiFi, computer labs and RebelApps remote software, printing, and more. Account and technology help is available by phone, email, chat, and on-campus in the Student Union and CBC-B. For hours and information, visit it.unlv.edu/help.

Print at UNLV

it.unlv.edu/student-printing

UNLV offers fee-per-page printing at various locations across campus. Students log into RebelPrint using their ACE account to print in campus computer labs.

Rebel Copy & Send

unlv.edu/academics/rebel-copy-send

Located in the Student Union, Rebel Copy & Send gives students access to various printing and shipping services.

Student Union Information Desk

unlv.edu/studentunion

Students can take care of more than their technology, printing, and shipping needs in the Student Union. They can also pick up free Scantrons and blue books for tests and exams at the Information Desk, located on the first floor.

CAMPUS RECREATION & WELLNESS

Student Recreation & Wellness Center

unlv.edu/srwc

The Student Recreation and Wellness Center (SRWC) is home to both Campus Recreational Services and the Student Health Center. Students registered for four or more credits are eligible to use the various services offered at the SRWC. Students registered for less than four credits may purchase an SRWC membership for $25 per month.

Campus Recreational Services

unlv.edu/campusrec

Campus Recreational Services offers activity space for students to exercise, dance, swim or just relax, and the Bike Shop provides repairs services, workshops, and mountain bike rentals. At the Rec, students can also participate in various recreational sports. Intramural sports include basketball, outdoor soccer, flag football, and volleyball. And club sports include bowling, esports, ice hockey, and wrestling, just to name a few!

Outdoor Adventures

unlv.edu/campusrec/outdoor-adventures

Outdoor Adventures offers single and multi-day trips, featuring everything from camping to nature yoga, rock climbing to paddling. If you choose to go on your own adventure, they can outfit you with high-quality outdoor gear from the rental center.

UNLV Wellness Zone

unlv.edu/studentwellness/wellnesszone

The UNLV Wellness Zone is an integrated wellness resource that offers targeted wellness programming, certified peer education training, wellness assessments, personal training, and free wellness supplies and resources. A professional wellness educator is also available to answer health and wellness-related questions. There's even a relaxation room where students can de-stress using the free automated massage chairs. The Wellness Zone also provides a variety of inclusive safer-sex supplies, health education workshops and presentations, menstrual products, and other essentials at no cost to students.

Student Health Center

unlv.edu/studentwellness/health-center

The Student Health Center is a nationally accredited health center that provides comprehensive, essential medical and mental health services on an outpatient basis. There is no office visit charge, and same-day appointments are usually available. Appointments can be made by calling 702-895-3370. Services available include:

- Treatment of various illnesses and injuries
- Wellness exams and screenings for men and women, including complete physical exams and pap smears
- Immunizations and vaccinations
 - Tetanus-diphtheria (Td); Measles, Mumps, & Rubella (MMR); Meningitis; Hepatitis; and more
 - Free flu vaccines
 - Free COVID-19 vaccinations and boosters
- Immediate first aid and blood pressure checks
- Early detection and ongoing care of chronic illnesses
- Basic vision screening
- Smoking cessation assistance
- Sports medicine clinics
- Gynecology clinics
- Contraceptive evaluation and maintenance
- Pregnancy testing
- Health information and health education programs
- On-site licensed accredited clinical laboratory offering a variety of lab tests with a health care provider's order
- On-site licensed pharmacy offering standard prescription and nonprescription medications and supplies, including free thermometers and free at-home COVID-19 tests

For a complete list of services offered, please visit unlv.edu/studentwellness/health-center and click on the Services Offered box.

Please call 702-895-3370 for more information or if you have any questions.

Note: All medical records are confidential. Information will not be released to anyone without the student's written consent, except as required by law or in case of a life-threatening emergency. Students under the age of 18, by Nevada State Law, are minors and must have signed and notarized parental consent and release to obtain medical care. This must be on file at the Student Health Center prior to care being given, except in the case of an emergency. These forms are available upon request.

The Care Center

unlv.edu/carecenter

The Care Center offers confidential support services to members of our UNLV community who may have experienced sexual violence, relationship violence, family violence, and stalking. Students can receive individual support to assist them in working through feelings, identifying needs, and making decisions. The Care Center also provides a campus crisis hotline, the Care Line, at 702-895-0602.

UNLV Support Team

unlv.edu/campuslife/supportteam

Students will occasionally experience challenges in their personal lives. All members of the UNLV community play an important role in helping students who are experiencing distress. The UNLV Support Team (UST) manages a referral system to share information about a student's well-being and connect them with university resources. The Support Team Referral Form is available on our website.

Counseling & Psychological Services

unlv.edu/studentwellness/caps

Pursuing a university education can be exciting, challenging, and sometimes highly stressful. Social and personal concerns can interfere with students' academic work and emotional well-being. Student Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is committed to helping students benefit fully from their college experience at UNLV. CAPS is accredited by the International Accreditation of Counseling Services (IACS) and offers in-person and telehealth services. Our psychologists, counselors, behavioral health provider, and psychiatrist specialize in dealing with the problems commonly experienced by college students of all ages and backgrounds. We collaborate with students to increase self-understanding and develop the skills necessary to overcome personal concerns.

Confidential services offered to assist students in managing the adjustment demands and personal challenges of college include:

- Single sessions and brief consultations
- Individual, group, and couples counseling
- Crisis assessment and intervention
- Psychological assessment and testing
- Drug and alcohol use assessment and treatment
- Eating disorder assessment and treatment
- Medication evaluation and management
- Referrals to community health care providers when necessary

All currently enrolled UNLV students who have paid their Student Health and Mental Health Fees are eligible for confidential counseling services. Initial consultation appointments are available during office hours, Monday through Thursday from 8am–5pm and Fridays from 9am–5pm.

A crisis counselor is available during operating hours for situations that need immediate attention. After-hours phone crisis services are available by calling the CAPS main number 702-895-3627 and selecting the prompt to speak with a crisis counselor.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

Clubs & Organizations

involvementcenter.unlv.edu

Getting involved is the best way for students to make the most out of their college experience. UNLV has more than 400 student clubs and organizations that encompass a variety of interests, activities, and beliefs.

Student Government

unlv.edu/csun

Consolidated Students of the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (CSUN) is the undergraduate student government at UNLV. CSUN represents the voice of students and strives to create a thriving campus community to enhance each student's college experience. CSUN offers free legal advice to undergraduate students, funding for student organizations, free scantrons and exam books at the Student Union info desk, and thousands of dollars in scholarships each year.

Fraternity & Sorority Life

unlv.edu/sia/fraternity-sorority

Greek life is an excellent way for students to get involved in the community and on campus. Our fraternity and sorority members come from every background but are united in shared values in academics, community service, leadership, campus involvement, and career development. There are four governing councils on campus: Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, Multicultural Greek Council, and National Pan-Hellenic Council.

Rebel Events Board

unlv.edu/sia/campus-programs

The Rebel Events Board (REB) coordinates programs that create an exciting student-life experience. Some events include Premier UNLV, Homecoming, Open Mic Nights, and Rebels After Dark.

Service Learning & Leadership

unlv.edu/sll

Service Learning and Leadership offers local and national leadership development and service opportunities to support students in developing the skills needed to make meaningful change in their community.

Student Diversity & Social Justice

unlv.edu/sdsj

Student Diversity and Social Justice (SDSJ) works to educate and affirm our diverse student population through advocacy, training, and programming. SDSJ advises two student organizations: Students Organizing Diversity Activities and Students Engaging and Empowering through Dialogue. These organizations plan and facilitate programs around various diversity and social justice topics.

Athletics

unlvrebels.com

UNLV Athletics, with its 17 NCAA Division 1 programs, has positioned itself as one of the Mountain West Conference's premier programs. UNLV offers students free tickets to all regular-season home sporting events.

POLICIES

The Clery Act

unlv.edu/police/report

University Police Services maintains a comprehensive report regarding the campus public safety environment, including the incidence of crime. This report summarizes public safety and security policies in effect on campus. The Annual Security & Fire Safety Report and Crime Log are available online.

Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act

unlv.edu/studentwellness/health-center/drugfreeschools

UNLV is committed to creating and maintaining a campus environment free of alcohol and substance abuse. The university strives to maintain a campus community that fosters the highest personal and institutional integrity standards.

Academic Policies

catalog.unlv.edu

All new UNLV students are responsible for reviewing and abiding by the academic policies, as stated in the current academic catalog.

unlv.edu/registrar/ferpa

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that protects student records privacy and disclosure rights. In compliance with FERPA, UNLV does not disclose personally identifiable information in student education records except authorized by law. Parents and guardians requesting access to student academic and financial records may only do so after the student has permitted them through a third-party release.

Title IX Compliance

unlv.edu/compliance/titleIX

Title IX is a federal law that prohibits discrimination based on sex in educational programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance. Examples of programs and activities that are subject to Title IX include admissions, recruitment, financial aid, academic programs, athletics, housing, and employment. Title IX also protects students from sexual harassment, which includes acts of sexual violence.

Student Conduct Code

unlv.edu/studentconduct

The Student Conduct Code and the Student Academic Misconduct Policy are designed to promote awareness of student rights and responsibilities, and establish accountability for student choices. These policies apply to every UNLV student when they accept admission to the university. Students accept the rights and responsibilities of membership in the university's academic and social community.

Americans with Disabilities Act

unlv.edu/drc

UNLV is committed to supporting students with disabilities through the appropriate use of advocacy, accommodations, and supportive services to ensure access to campus courses, services, and activities. The university facilitates reasonable accommodations in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973.

Equal Education & Employment Opportunity & Affirmative Action

unlv.edu/compliance/plans

UNLV adheres to an equal education and employment opportunity and affirmative action program on its path to achieving excellence through diversity. The university complies with the laws, regulations, policies, and guidance that prohibit discrimination based on race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or genetic information.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

OFFICIAL NOTICE TO CAMPUS REGARDING SUBSTANCE USE. This official notice is issued pursuant to Subpart B, Section 86.100, of the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989.

Dear Students:

Maintaining a campus community that fosters the highest standards of personal and institutional integrity is a critical component of university life. The University of Nevada, Las Vegas is committed to creating and maintaining a campus environment that is free of alcohol and substance abuse and views the abuse of alcohol and legal drugs and the use of illicit drugs as being antithetical to the pursuit of educational excellence and the realization of one's full potential as a student and member of this community.

Alongside the countless opportunities for community members' academic and personal success is the university's deep regard for their health and safety. UNLV recognizes that keeping our campus community safe and well necessitates the involvement of faculty and students alike to decrease the impact of alcohol and drug misuse and abuse. The UNLV Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Notification describes the university's portfolio of alcohol and other drug programs encompassing policies, the Student Conduct Code, criminal regulations and penalties, the health risks associated with alcohol and drug use, and prevention, treatment, and recovery resources.

You may obtain a copy of the UNLV Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Notification in several ways; download the document at unlv.edu/studentwellness/healthcenter/drugfreeschools, pick up a hard copy at the UNLV Student Wellness Center during normal business hours, and request a copy to be mailed to you, free of charge, by calling The Office of the Associate Vice President for Student Wellness at 702-895-0136.

Cordially,
