The (UNLV) Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships will determine your eligibility for summer financial aid after a review of:

- The financial aid already applied to your account during the Fall 2023 and Spring 2024 semesters
- Your enrollment for the summer - Please fill out the “Enrolled Summer Term Classes” section below
- Satisfactory Academic Progress

Please only submit this form after you have finalized your summer enrollment. Changes to your class schedule may impact your financial aid eligibility or delay disbursement. You are responsible for fee payment by the deadlines based on the UNLV summer term in which you are enrolled, even if your application for summer financial aid has not been processed.

Complete this form and submit it through the Rebel Success Hub by the priority dates listed below that correspond to your earliest summer session of enrollment. Adhering to the priority deadlines (listed below) ensures that the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships will review your form and you will receive notification of your summer financial aid eligibility before the payment deadline. All forms received after the priority deadline may still be submitted for review; however, financial aid eligibility may not be in place before tuition payment is due.

Once your summer form has been processed by our office, a Financial Aid Award Notification explaining your summer financial aid eligibility will be sent to your UNLV Rebelmail and be available to review on your MyUNLV account.
