LIBRARY TO-DO LIST FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

Learn the name of your liaison librarian: library.unlv.edu/contact/librarians_by_subject
Liaison librarians have subject-specific expertise and can assist you with locating resources related to your research area. If you are teaching, a liaison librarian can work to provide library instruction for your students.

Make an appointment with your liaison librarian: guides.library.unlv.edu/appointments
Liaison librarians are available for one-on-one research consultations.

Activate your library account: library.unlv.edu/help/activating_your_account
Access electronic resources off campus, borrow books we do not own, and renew books online.

Get an account with RefWorks, a web-based bibliographic management tool: library.unlv.edu/research/refworks
Start organizing your research right away.

Install RefWorks Write-N-Cite on your personal computer: library.unlv.edu/help/refworks/writencite.html
Access your RefWorks references and easily cite and format them within Microsoft Word. It does the work for you.

Sign up for an ILLiad account: unlv.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/logon.html
Request items we do not own from other libraries. You can get scanned articles emailed to you within three days and books within seven days.

Take advantage of Link+: csul.iii.com/
Order books the library does not own or are checked out.

Sign up for a library workshop: library.unlv.edu/inst/ws_descriptions.php
Workshops are on a broad array of research-related topics ranging from locating grants and fellowships to strategies for developing an effective literature review.

Locate your discipline's subject guide or ask your liaison librarian to create one: guides.library.unlv.edu/
They contain information about all the key resources in your subject area and how to access them.
